{ The Library at Trump SoHo

Get a taste of the Midas touch at SoHo's extravagant dessert den. The Library at Trump SoHo hotel provides unparalleled views of downtown Manhattan and the intimate, sleek, two-story lobby below. It is a luxe nook of a place outfitted with couches and rich details for the comfort of intimate groups. Feast on the combination of surreal tastes and visual presentation with each authentic Italian dessert.

Starting with their most popular, the Bomboloni Della Casa is a masterful trio of homemade Italian doughnuts filled with vanilla and chocolate custards, and apricot jelly. Chocolate lovers will find their haven with the Valrhona Cioccolato Sabotaggio. The vivid taste of each distinctive chocolate goes above and beyond the standard fare. Chocolate cake, chocolate caramel crostata and dark chocolate mousse with Nutella gelato are served in concert for an extraordinary blend. End with a simple refreshing Meringa Di Limone. This tasty lemon custard is sandwiched between two crunchy baked meringue cookies and served with refreshing raspberry sorbert topped with...what else but a gold flake. This is a Trump venue, after all.

Feeling the heart of fall? Order a Thai Hot Toddy with Mekhong rum, honey lemon juice and a delicious cinnamon stick to warm you in front of the chic modern fireplace. An Amber Spice cocktail topped with fresh puréed pumpkin also does the trick.

Take a breather while sampling the exquisite desserts and peruse through the collection of TASCHEM books laid throughout this lustrous niche. The fresh balance of modern, artful décor and gorgeous Fendi furniture will make it easy for you to pace yourself through multiple rounds of sweet decadence.
